CRYSTAL CHALLENGE

The Crystal Team Challenge event is packed with fun, excitement and hilarity as whole teams compete against each other to see who will come out victorious! The games will test your team's mental agility and physical skills, working together to beat the opposition before the time runs out. Working through four zones, your team aims to win crystals which equate to seconds. Beat your opponents within the time and you'll win a large crystal (worth five seconds). Fail to complete the task and you'll walk away with nothing.... unless your instructor thinks your efforts deserve a small crystal, or even two (worth one second each).

- Well maintained and regularly updated equipment
- Inflatable finale

CHARITY BIKE BUILD

redblaze

This challenge is based on building bicycles for young children. The end charity ranges from children's homes to charity shops, to donations to underprivileged families. Each team starts with a basic frame. The challenge is to earn all the different components required to complete each bike. To earn the components, they have to complete a range of tasks, some pure fun, and some skill-based. For each task completed teams receive fun money which is then used in all the different equipment zones to purchase all the different materials and components required.
